Family Letter of Introduction:

Dear au pair,

My name is Fanny. I'm 4. I am a kindergarten student and a lovely girl. I love learning English, so I'd like to have a foreign elder sister to live with us, to learn language together and to help me with my oral English. I have my father, my mother, my elder brother and my grandmother in my family. My brother is 11 and he studied at a boarding school in another city. He go back home every two weeks. On weekdays, my parents will go to work at 7:30am and I will get to the kindergarten at around 8:00am. I get back home after school at 4:00pm. While on weekends, I will attend extra English class. I have many hobbies, such as painting, singing, dancing and all kinds of sports. If you are willing to teach me some new knowledge, I'd love to learn.

I have to go to kindergarten for another 2 years. The kindergarten is just in the neighborhood of our house, and it takes only 10 minutes' walk to get there. We are living in downtown in Changshu, which is a beautiful small city in the southern part of China with both mountains and lakes in the city. The apartment we live in now has three bedrooms. One for my parents, one for my grandmother and another is for you. I now sleep in my parents' room, but if you can, I hope I can share the room with you for some time. My brother rarely go back home; but when he does go back, he will sleep on the floor with in our room. Sometimes, you can go to the countryside with me on holidays. My grandparents live there and they have a really big garden. I'm sure you will love it.

At last, we are really looking forward to your coming, and we hope you can be a member of our happy family.

Fanny.
