5、 About Au Pair

What major household duties do you expect the au pair to perform?

Communicate with us in English and help us improve our spoken English.
Since the au pair will live in a neighboring apartment, hopefully she can do the cleaning of the apartment herself.

List the most important household rules for your au pair to know:

Respect each other.

How will you help your au pair adjust to your family, to the life in China and to the Chinese culture?

We'll invite the au pair to join us in various family activities such as shopping, going sightseeing and parties. We'll try our best to help her solve any problems she might meet.

How will you address the issue of homesickness with your au pair?

We'll try to make the au pair feel a part of our family. By making the au pair join us in the family activities we can enjoy the happiness together and shoulder the responsibility together. In this way we can be as close as real families. If she really misses the family, then we can provide internet or phones for her to contact with her family.

Why would you encourage an au pair living with your family?

How will you promote cultural exchange in your home?

We will cook together and we can introduce some food culture during the meal.

We can travel together and during the travelling tell her some history of China.

We can watch movies together at home.

Family Letter of Introduction:

Dear au pair,

It's a great pleasure for us to have this opportunity of cross-cultural communication. Welcome to be part of our family!

My wife and I are running a small company together. We have two daughters, one is 11 years old and the other 6 years old. Both girls are outgoing and friendly and we hope to make friend with you as soon as possible.

We will provide you with an apartment next to our house, with one living room, one bedroom and one bathroom. We hope you can do the cleaning yourself, but should you have any difficulties our housekeeper can help you do the work. Apart from that, no more housework will be required.

Why do we want an au pair to live with us? The most important reason living with an au pair will provide us—not only our daughters, but also my wife and I—numerous opportunities to communicate in English. In this way, we hope your English is very fluent and native. In addition, because both girls are in the primary school, so we might need you to supervise or help them do their homework.

We like travelling very much. Usually we'll travel far away during the winter and summer vacation. In some shorter holidays we will go for a self-driving tour. We welcome you to join us to explore the beauty of China together.

We hope you can be a person of a healthy, positive and outgoing character. We hope you can be the teacher, the sister as well as the best friend of our daughters.

Welcome to China. wish to see you soon.

Yours, Host Family
